

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN RE: LOCAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 2090-1

ORDER

AND NOW, this Sixth Day of January, 2003, in accordance with the unanimous resolution of the Judges of the Court on this date, adopted pursuant to 28 U.S.C.

§2071(e), it is hereby ORDERED, that subsection (c) of Local Rule of Bankruptcy

Procedure 2090-1 is amended to read as set forth below, effective February 1, 2003.

BY THE COURT:

JAMES T. GILES
Chief Judge

(c) Admission Pro Hac Vice. An attorney who is a member in good standing of the bar of any United States District Court or the highest court of any state or of the District of Columbia may be admitted to practice before this court in a particular case.

(i) Adversary Proceedings. A request for admission pro hac vice to appear in an adversary proceeding shall be made by verified application and upon motion of a member of the bar of this court and shall be accompanied by an admission fee established by the district court. The motion may be granted without hearing under L.B.R. 9014-2; however, no such admission shall be effective until such time as the fee has been paid.

(ii) Non-Adversary Proceedings. A request for admission pro hac vice to appear in any matter other than an adversary proceeding shall be made as set forth in subparagraph (c)(i) above, except that :

- (A) No admissions fee is required; and
- (B) The court, in its discretion, may waive the requirement of a written application and motion, and in lieu thereof may permit same to be made on the record by a member of the bar of this court.
